We all within our graves shall sleep A hundred years to come; No living soul for us will weep A hundred years to come; But other men our land will till. And others then our streets will fill, And other words will sing as gay,
And bright the sun as shines to-day,
A hundred years to come.

"Are we to change the organic structures of the States, and, in fact, the Government, by mere force of party discipline? Here are party majorities in the Legislatures, hurrying on to adopt an organic change in the Government, without any inquiry into its merits, and without asking the opinion of the people. Are we Republicans afraid to submit our questions to public opinion? If we are it is tima the people taught us better, and unless I am much mistaken they will. I know with what reckless and thoughtless haste the majority of parthoughtless haste the majority of partisans ratify the decrees of a caucus; but, I know also, that there are thoughtful and intelligent men enough in this country to turn the scale. I wish the country to turn the scale. I wish the sons, one of whom, Don Diego, rose pages and the brought to a direct

But are the necessary elements furative, not active. There will be no renished to children as they are the force it. Suffrage requires time, place residence, and various circumstances to be determined by State lawk. To suppose that all these are to be determined by Congress would be so monstrous that I am not prepared to see any party attempt it, and I am perfectly sure it would overturn any party. It was a civil community, composed of certain individual citizens recognized and defined by the civil law. Now that was the organic element of the government organic element of the government known as New York, then an independent State. Now suppose all the other States make an amendment to the Constitution by which three hundred thousand Chinese are made members of the civil community of New York, and which by the laws of New York and which by the laws of New York could not be members of that civil community, have they any right to do that? Very pertinent questions, especially in view of the fact that the friends of Imperialism feel themselves to be so strong that they can start and sustain a paper advocating a change from the Republic to an Empire. Mr. MANS-FIELD closes his protest against the Fifteenth Amendment by saying:

"I defended the constitutional right of the National Government to maintain the unity by the exercise of the war power; and I defended the constitutional right of Congress to resist the usurpation of the Executive; but neither of these include or gives the least right to strike at the organic structure of the States; we are now at peace; and why should we not enjoy fruits of peace by avoiding all dis-We are rejoiced that thinking minds are questioning the virtues of the Fif- of the Government?"

Cyrus J. Thompson, a non-resident of Ohio, also Tunis T. Kendrick, supposed to be a non-resident, are hereby notified that on the 10th day of April, 1869, Alexander H Wilcox filed in the Court of Common Pleas of Portage County, Ohio, his petition against them, praying that a certain deed made by said Wilcox to said Kendrick, January 14, 1868, for 222 acres of land in lots 85, 38 and 92, in Deerfield, Portage County, Ohio, may be set aside and held of no validity, and plaintiff declared to be the owner of said real estate. Said petition charges that said dieed is without sonsideration, and was procured by the fraud and false representation of said Kendrick, That a few weeks after obtaining it, Kandrick deeded said real estate to said Thompson, who is a confederate of said Kendrick, and is holding the premises for him, and knew all about the worthlessness of said deed made by plaintiff and the fraud of Kendrick, and that said Kendrick is the real owner thereof, and if said Thompson has any interest it was acquired with full notice of plaintiff's rights. The real estate in lot 85 is bounded north, west and south by the lot line, west by A. & S. Reed's land, containing 20 4:100 acres. The piece in lot 91, north by the diagonal road, east by R. Ferguson's land, south by the lot line, west by A. & S. Reed's land, containing 20 4:100 acres. The piece in lot 192, bounded north, east and south by the lot lines, and west by H. Steel's land, containing 90 acres. Said petition prays that the deed made by plaintiff to Kendrick, may be set aside and declared void. That said Kendrick and Thompson may be barred and excluded from all right in said real estate. That they be enjoined from disturbing plaintiff in the possession of it, and that they and all acting in their behalf, be enjoined from receiving any avails thereof, that may be not not be paid over to plaintiff, or else held by the Court to ab
